Report to the Board: Drug Enforcement

From: Acting Inspector J. Fluney

Date: Wednesday, June 15, 2016

Related to Business Plan S#3, 14

During the month of May 2016 the Drug/Intelligence Unit continued investigations into local drug traffickers. Several investigations are ongoing in relation to an Owen Sound male suspected of trafficking in cocaine, an Owen Sound male suspected of trafficking methamphetamine and also an Owen Sound female suspected in the trafficking of cocaine and methamphetamine.

In May members of the OPP Drug Unit sought assistance from the Owen Sound Police Service Drug unit to download data from cellular phones seized during a Controlled Drugs and Substances Act search warrant. The unit assisted with the request and executed a Controlled Drugs and Substances Act search warrant on the seized phones.

Also from May 2nd to the 19th one member continued in his training role and provided the annual firearms and CEW qualification training to the Owen Sound Police. During this training block members of the OSPS transitioned to the recently purchased Glock 17 pistols.

The Drug Unit also worked with members of Grey and Bruce County OPP Drug Officers in conducting street level trafficking investigations resulting in the seizure of cash proceeds, methamphetamine, and heroin and charges against a Bruce County man who had been supplying Owen Sound drug traffickers.
